UNEMPLOYMENT RATE LOWEST SINCE 2009...

BUT STILL MORE WORK TO DO

Our initiatives have helped to jump-start the economy; the unemployment rate is now at its lowest level since 2009. Connecticut may be emerging from the global recession, but we still have a long way to go. That's why my top priorities for this legislative session are to create more high-quality jobs and protect and expand small businesses. Here's how:

- ▶ Increase the definition of a 'small business' from 50 to 100 employees to make thousands of additional Connecticut businesses eligible for loans and assistance;
- ▶ Provide training and assistance to our combat veterans returning from overseas by expanding grants to small businesses that encourage them to hire and grow their business;
- ▶ Strengthen local manufacturing by creating a Connecticut Made campaign; and,
- ▶ Reduce red tape in the hiring and grant-making process to get people back to work more quickly.
